Ye gallant, true Whigs of the army That conquered with Tippecanoe, Come with us and join now the standard Of "Harry, the honest and true." Of Harry, the honest and true, Our Harry, the tried and the true ; Who "fought in the ranks," as a soldier With us for old Tippecanoe. We have not, my friends, new tolead us,

Our former commander, 'tis true, For death has been here and promoted Our Chieftain, brave Tippecanoe; Our Chieftain, brave Tippecanoe; Our gallant old Tippecanoe; He's left us to join the high army Of those who are faithful and true! Yet in the same cause we're united,

We fight the same enemy too. And have, for our leader, invited The friend of old Tippecanoe. The friend of old Tippecance, Our honest old Tippecanoe: He's left none behind him more worthy Than Harry, the gifted and true! We know that HE never will leave us,

To join with the enemy's crew; We know he will never deceive us, HE ever was honest and true: The Statesman, bold, fearless and true; Our Harry, the honest and true; The trusty and cherished supporter, And friend of old Tippecanoe!

One gallant old Chief, when he left us, Bequeathed us a 'Captain,' thought true; But the traitor has since joined the army That fought against Tippecanoe. That fought against Tippecanoe. Our noble old Tippecanoe; But come boys, we'll yet ' head the Captaia,' With Harry, the dauntless and true!

The vict'ry we gained once so nobly, We've lost, and by treachery too; But, shall ever the soldiers despair, boys, Who've fought with old Tippecanoe? Who've fought with old Tippecanoe, The gallant old Tippecanoe; Pick your flints again-look to your priming, And FIRE! boys, for Harry, the true !

TEXAS AND ITS RESOURCES.—Mr. Jas. Izod, of Nutchez, formerly resident in Texas, a gentleman who is well acquainted with that country, has handed the editor of the Natchez Courier the following statistics, which are of interest to every reader. VIEWS OF MAMMOTH CAVE -Mr. William C. Allen, a young artist, who was some time since a resident of Louisville, is taking views of the interior of Mammoth Cave. These are to be engraved by the finest engravers of this country or of Europe, and to be accompanied by descriptions. Few artists are better qualified than Mr. Allen for delineating the wonders of this mighty subterranean realm, exceeding in extent any city in the Union, and decorated and ornamented with the choicest of nature's handiwork, conceived in her wildest and most fanciful moods; and we predict that he will produce a work which, for novelty of design, richness of material, and fidelity and beauty of execution, will surpass any thing of the kind which was ever conceived or executed.

[Louisville Journal. SUDDEN DEATHS .- Mr. James P. Burgess, one day last week, fell dead near the Pawtuxet Turnpike. He was a very respectable man, a member, we believe, of the Society of Friends. Mr. William C. Munro fell in Pine-street last Saturday afternoon, and immediately died, from the rupture of a blood vessel, occasioned by sudden excitement.

Mr. Benjamin L. Tuells, while gunning with a friend on Saturday, was accidentally shot through his head by his comrade, and died instantly. Mr. T. was a young man of much promise, and his sudden departure from time is not only a great calamity to his more immediate friends, but to the society of which he was an ornament.

and Inflamed Eyes —This Balsam is a prescription of one of the most celebrated oculists, has been a long time in use, and is confidently recommended to the public as the best and most successful salve ever user for inflammatory liseases of the eye. In cases where the eyelids are very nuch inflamed, or the ball of the eye thickly covered with slood, it operates almost like magic, and removes all appear-unce of disease after two or three applications.

ance of disease after two or three applications.

In Dimness of Sight caused by fixed attention to minute objects, or by long exposure to a strong light, and in the weakness or partial loss of sight from sickness or old age, it is a sure restorer, and should be used by all who find their eyesight failing without any apparent disease.

This Balsam has restored sight in many instances where almost TOTAL BLINDNESS, caused by excessive inflammation, had existed for years.

EVERY INVALID SHOULD READ AND REFLECT, IF THEY DESIRE A RESTORATION TO HEALTH.—I venture to affirm, says an eminent writer, that the grand source of health and disease is connected with the natural or disordered function of the liver, and that every chronic or lingering illness arises from some defect there. Chronic Hepatitis the most frequent form of the disease in this contry, is slow in its progressive strength. The organ of attack will be for years progressive strength. The organ of attack will be for years suffering under its undermining influence, and yet no real disease will indicate to the patient the alarming state under which he is laboring; any transient indisposition he imputes to a different cause, never suspecting that the liver being affected is the latent source of these disturbed sensations; thus misled, it is not in his power to take the necessary precaution to guard against this issidious enemy to his repose. The symptoms of this disease are often slight and felt for a considerable time, such as fulness after meals, accompanied by ongression, a feeling of yacuity at the nit of the stomach. by oppression, a feeling of vacuity at the pit of the stomach, the mind becomes irritable, memory defective, incapacity for mental exertion prevails, the appetite becomes variable, tongue furred mouth clammy, taste vitiated, slight noise, causes a start, sleep disturned with frightful dreams, occaionally an obtuse pain in the right side, extending to the top of the shoulder, cramp or spasm is often experienced, and nervous twitching of the muscles and aching pain of the imb, nervous or sick headache is generally caused by it. In the spears in the form of cough, asthma, &c., as a dis-eased state of the liver, either by sympathy or pressure, in-duces a derangement of the functions of the lungs and oaca-sions these disorders. By changing the morbid state of the liver, the irritation of the lungs immediately gives way.— The liver is indeed connected, primarily or secondarily, as cause or effect, with various diseases of the head as well as disorders of the liver are of the first importance, and every effort used to remedy them should be conducted on rational effort used to remedy them should be conducted on rational principles, and by timely and efficient attention and the use of the most proper medicines, many very serious consequences may be prevented, which too often are entailed on the constitution by procrastination.

As a remedy peculiarly adapted to the cure of liver affections, Dr. Starkweather's Hepatic Elixir has proved to be the most potent and efficacious, and every day's experience confirms more positively this assertion. It is candidly believed that no preparation has ever been before the public leves that no preparation has ever been before the public that has met with such unexampled approbation from dis-inguished sources, disinterested judges, and grateful paas been mitigated and more cures permanently effected by ients as this medicine, and a greater amount of

It than any other medicine extant.

So consident is the proprietor of its curative properties in every case, that when the medicine is used according to his directions and the patient is not satisfied or convinced, after urn of the empty bottle.
